A small-arms and gun factory on a large scale are likewise to be established at Wuchang, and the machinery has been ordered from Germany. This programme is a pretty large order, as it is to be undertaken all at once, and speaks well for the Viceroy's courage and enterprise, whatever may be thought of the prudence of starting so many important undertakings at the same time. Of course from the patriotic might have the benefit of the views of the The first is to enable the Chinese to compete be read a third time on Monday afternoon foreign countries to purchase arms and am- while. munition. But by and bye he wil find he has outrun the constable, and he will be compelled to impose some new and un welcome duty on some branch of trade, which is sure to inflict bardship on some class and give rise to discontent; the new enterprises commenced with so much ardonr will languish, and it is not unlikely that some may be deserted. It would have been wiser had His Excellency taken one scheme hand at a time, and given all his time and energy to its encouragement and support.

those words would not come within the operation of the Ordinance. Such does not appear to be the interpretation given by the Customs to the English Act. The case mentioned by Mr. TAYLOR was that of case of goods made in Belgium which was stopped at Folkestone because it bore the word "Neptune," The goods were not intended for sale in England but were pass ing through to Liverpool in transit to America. The purest ingredients only are used, and but should have gone forward to Livepool in bond. He then mentioned a number of other similar instances, and said that the effect of the Act had been to drive away from England a large amount of transit shipping, and the goods in many instances were now goingdirect from Continental ports to America

> He produced a number of letters from manufacturers in England and abroad, saying that in consequence of the action of the Customs authorities they had decided to send direct from Continental ports in foreign vessels. As a remedy the witness suggested the transit goods should be sent forward in bond; it would meet the views of shipowners i goods marked "in transit" were not interfered with by the Customs authorities. STARTLING BYENT IN A VILLAGE To the Editor of "Saturday Night," Birmingham. I RECENTLY came into possession of certalu facts of so remarkable a nature, that I am ware you will be glad to againt in making them public. The following letters were shown to meand I at once begged permission to copy them for the Press. They come from a highly responsible source, and may be received without MESSAGE FROM GEORGE JAMES GOST-LING, L.D.S., R.C.S.I. Ph. C.I., Licentiate in Pharmacy and Dental Surgeon. Stowmarket, 18th July, 1889. To ME. WHITE, The enclosed remarkable cure should. I think be printed and circulated in Suffolk. The statement was entirely voluntary, and is genuine in fact anddetail. "To the Proprietors of Mother Seigel's Syrup, "GENTLEMEN,-The following remarkable ours was related to me by the husband. Mary Ann Spink, of Finborough, Suffolk, was for over twonty years offlicted with rheumatism and neuralgia, and although comparatively a young woman at the time she was attacked (she is now. fifty), she was compelled, in consequence, to walk with two sticks, and even then with difficulty and pain. About a year and a half ago she was advised to try Mother Seigel's Syrup, and after taking three bottles and two boxes of Seigel's Stowmarket with ease, frequently doing the distance in three-quarters of an hour. Any suffered truthfulness by paying a visit to the village and before Noon, TO-DAY (TUESDAY) reenquiring of the villagers, who will certify to the Appended is the husband's signature to the "(R. Spink.) G. J. GOSTLING. Ipswich Street Stowmarket." happy cure wrought by this simple but powerful

This is certainly a very pitiable case, and the remedy, must move the sympathy of all hearts in a common pleasure. This poor woman had been a oripple for twenty of her best years in which she should have had such comfort and enjoyment as life has to give. But, on the contrary, she was a miserable burden to herself and source of care to her friends. Now, at an age when the rest of us are growing feeble, she, in a manuer, renews her youth and almost begins a new existence. What a blessing and what a wonder it is! No one who knows her, or who reads her story, but will be thankful that the good Lord has suabled men to discover a remedy capable of bringing about a cure that reminds us —we speak it reverently—of the age of miracles. It should be explained that this most remarkable cure is due to the fact that rheumatism is a disease of the blood. Indigestion, constipation, and dyspensis cause the poison from the partially discerted food to enter the circulation, and the god denosits It in the joints and musikes The is rheamatism. Seignl's Syrap corrects the ligestion, and so stops the further formation and deposit of the poison. It then removes from the system the poison already there. It is not a core-all. It does its wonderful work entirely by its mysterious action upon the digestive organs. But when we remember that nine-tenths of our ailments arise in those organs, we can understand why Seigel's Syrup cures so many diseases that

TAT BEREAS WONG TUNG SHING, a native of Tung Kun District, residing at No. 17, Wui Hing Street, Wanchai, on the 25th day 12th moon last year, LOST his son CHEUNG Sow, aged 5 years: search was then made all round this Colony, but he was not found. Notices of A ward were posted up in Hongkong, but he was traceless. Luckily Inspector SWANSTON, of No. 2 Police Station, Wanchei, sent an informer CHUNG YUNG, paying his passage money and all other expenses, to make searches, and the boy was found at Hoi Fung, so that Parents and Children of the whole Family can therefore rejoice together.
